

SGA TO HEAR
LOAN FUND BILL
IN REVISED FORMCollier Will Give
Report On Probe
Of Eating Places

Final reading of the controversial student loan fund bill, which was referred to the rules committee for revision and amendment, will be given before the Student Legislature at 8 p.m., today, in Room 204 of the Union building, SGA president, Bob Allen, said yesterday.

The measure, presented jointly by Jack Lovett and Doniphan Burrus, was rejected in November by a narrow 9-10 margin after approximately 1,000 students and 50 faculty members had petitioned for its passage.

The act received its major opposition from members who declared that a $2,000 loan fund was too large, but the rules committee has recommended certain amendments which may satisfy its opponents and effect its passage.

At tonight's meeting, James Collier, who was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate student living conditions, will report on student eating places. He investigated the women's dormitories, boarding houses, and restaurants. Later a report will be made on housing and working conditions.

A formal report of the treasurer, reports of all standing committees, and the awarding of the freshman cap contract also will be made at the meeting.

SENATE CREDITS
"DEAD COURSES"Committee Okays
New Curricula

Students who complete work in courses not approved by the University Senate will receive full credit for their work, the Senate voted yesterday at its regular meeting in Lafferty hall.

The recommendation was made by the curriculum committee in its annual report as an attempt to meet any difficulty which might arise from "dead" courses, the report said.

Under University rules, all courses taught must have the approval of the Senate before being added to the curriculum. Nearly every year, the report continued, the Senate approves various courses only for summer school instruction which are to be dropped at the fall term.

However, many courses escape the committee and are opened to registration and instruction. When the error is caught, the course will not be dropped until later, and credit given to the student.

The maximum number of credit hours that can be taught by the University has almost been attained, the committee said. The Senate also approved a petition for the organization of an Art club "to encourage creative work."

Pledges Lead Hard Life
In PR 'Courtesy Week'Lieutenant Says
'Actives Get
To Know Lads'

By WARREN SHONERT

"Courtesy Week," described as "a better chance to get to know the lads" by Lieut. Chester Brown of Pershing Rifles, is being held this week by the military organization for its 54 pledges.

It has been the annual custom in previous years, the climax of the week will be a camping trip on the Kentucky river Saturday and Sunday. The site of the camp, which has not been determined, will either be the YMCA or Boy Scout camp located on the Kentucky river near Frankfort.

39 Actives—54 pledges

Thirty-nine actives of Pershing Rifles will accompany the pledges Saturday afternoon to the camp. The group will return Sunday morning.

For THE KERNEL's opinion of hazing weeks, whether they be classified under the titles "courtesy," "hell," "house," or "work," see the editorial and cartoon on today's editorial page.

Accompanying the organization will be Major John E. Brannon, Lieut. John Carter, Lieut. James Smeed, Lieut. Leslie Allison and alumni of the organization.

The initiation exercises will be held Saturday night at the camping

ALL UP IN THE AIR
These Graff ballet dancers will perform aerial maneuvers Thursday night in Henry Clay auditorium.

Graff Ballet To Feature
'Renaissance' NumberDance Program
To Be Presented
At Henry Clay

By JEAN WILLIAMS

"Renaissance," the famous dance of Grace and Kurt Graff, will be featured in the performance of the Graff Ballet Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Henry Clay high school auditorium, under the auspices of the University Women's Athletic Association.

This dance, which creates the atmosphere of Renaissance Italy, was first performed at the Great Northern theatre in Chicago, causing such a reaction that it was repeated by request in the Graff ballet performance at the Art Institute of Chicago.

The program will open with a dance of greeting to the audience called "Preface." The pattern of movement, like a progression of sound in an overture, will carry the dancers' greeting to the audience.

The sound number on the program will introduce Grace and Kurt in "Con Vico" an abstract dance of introduction done in a light, gay manner to music by Domenico Scarlatti.

"Garden Party" a satire on the boredom of a mythical king and queen with their social duties, and the superficiality of society, done by the entire ensemble, will be the third number.

Following the Graffs' second appearance on the program in "Renaissance," the group's newest ballet called "Ode of the Living" danced by the entire company, will conclude the first of the program.

Tickets for the ballet may be bought at the women's gymnasium, from Margaret Warren, faculty adviser, WAA council members, and the modern dance group.

Ushers for the ballet will be Lida Belle Howe, Doris Reichenbach, Anna Crouch, Gladys Kilpatrick, Jean Williams, Doris Settle, Dorothy Paul, Eloise Rochester, Mabel Warnercke, Ann Hatter, Jennie Sullivan, Rita Sue Leslie, Agnes Smith, Jennie Puckett, Wilma Salmon, Jean Ewers, Frances Schreck, and Betty Breeden.

site, Lieutenant Brown said. While there, the group will maintain their headquarters in the buildings that are located at the camp.

Will Stand Retreat
"Courtesy Week" which began yesterday, will continue daily until the initiation Saturday night. The pledges will stand retreat at the flag pole at noon and also at that time on Thursday. The group will also be required to stand retreat on Wednesday and Friday at 4:30.

Among the rules that the pledges are complying with this week include wearing their uniforms all the time including a manila rope 1/2 inch in diameter, six feet long, with a nail attached to its end and white work gloves at all times.

"No Hazing"—Cloud

The pledges may be identified on the campus by the white broomssticks representing their guns, and by the military fashion in which they are marching. They are compelled to know the organization's history, and customs of service and military courtesies.

Taylor Will Speak

Dr. William S. Taylor, dean of the education college, will speak at a meeting of the Business Education club today in Room 204 of the Union building.

Freshman and sophomore women who plan to enter this field of work are invited to attend.

TAU BETA PI
TO TAP FRIDAYAnnual Pledging
Set For 10 a. m.

Annual spring pledging exercises will be conducted by Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity, at an all-engineering assembly at 10 a.m. Friday, in Memorial hall.

Ernest Bailey, president, will preside and the principal address will be given by Coach Ab Kirwan.

The traditional ceremony of "tapping" the pledges with a wooden sledge hammer will be followed. The pledges have no previous knowledge of their selection. Initiation will be held the following week.

Tau Beta Pi was inaugurated at the University in 1902, as the first honorary organization on the campus. The fraternity now has 69 active chapters. It was founded at Lehigh university in 1885.

Requirements for membership in the fraternity are standing in the upper one-eighth of the junior class or the upper one-fourth of the senior class.

Besides Bailey, officers of the fraternity are Vernon Albert, vice-president; Jack McNamee, secretary; and V. H. Florence, treasurer.

The Engineers Ball, sponsored by Tau Beta Pi, will be held March 22 with music provided by Frances Craig.

Spanish Club Will Meet

El Ateneo Castellano, the University Spanish club, will meet at 4 p.m. today, on the third floor of the Natural Science building, president Martin Friedman announced. The second "Professor Quiz" program of the year will be conducted.

KA's Are Fined
$10 For Infraction
Of 'Hell Week' Rule

Kappa Alpha was fined $10 by the Interfraternity council last yesterday afternoon for an infraction of a "house week" rule, it was announced by John Conrad, council president.

The infraction, Conrad said, involved the "no public exhibitionism" ruling of the council code adopted last October. The fine is the first to be levied under the new system.

Herman On Tap

Records of Woody Herman and his orchestra will be featured at the weekly Modern Music concert from 3:30 to 4 p.m. today in the Music room of the Union building.

Band To Work And Play Over Weekend

By BETTY JANE PUGH

Work is play and play is work so far as musicians are concerned, and so the coming weekend brings work and play for the members of the "Best Band in Dixie."

Play precedes work in this case, with the "Hornrooster's Hop," semi-formal dance set for Saturday night at the Union, sponsored by the band. Sunday afternoon the boys will play again, but this time it's work—a concert in Memorial Hall.

At the dance Saturday night the recently selected band sponsor, Barbara Rhem, will be formally presented by Brooks Coons, new drum major, who made his first appearance with the band March 1 at the Southern basketball tournament in Louisville. Music will be furnished by the Troubadours, a Frankfort orchestra composed almost entirely of University bandmen.

Sunday's concert will feature a sophomore cornetist from Parkersburg, W. Va., Parley Rollins, C. V. Maguire, director of the band discovered the young soloist last fall during a series of scholarship auditions which he was conducting at the West Virginia high school.

Profits From Wildcat
Will Be Turned Over
To Legion For DefenseFunds To Be Used
To Buy Uniforms
For Local Militia

John Ed Pearce, editor of the Wildcat, campus humor publication, announced yesterday that in the future all profits from the magazine will be directed toward national defense, "so that we can have the last laugh on Hitler."

The entire net income from advertising and circulation, Pearce said, will be turned over to the Man O' War (Lexington) post of the American Legion to be used for whatever purpose the local commander deems most expedient.

"The staff and I have decided," he explained in an interview last night, "that such a move will not be out of place at present, since it will not only arouse support on the campus for the very vital defense program, but will combat the erroneous opinion of citizens of the state that the University is only a hotbed of 'radical' students."

"These students, who have been given so much publicity during the past few years, do not by any means express the feelings of the total student body, and the support which will be thrown behind our campaign will prove it."

When contacted by The Kernel yesterday, R. W. Wilson, district commander of the Legion, said he and other members of the local post considered the action "one of the finest things ever done for the country by University students." He said that "although the Wildcat proceeds will be allocated from time to time in accordance with arising needs, the income will in the immediate future be used to buy uniform shirts for the newly organized Lexington Militia."

This latter organization, Wilson said, has been formed to replace the local unit of the National Guard, which was recently mobilized for a year's service with the regular army. The Militia, he explained, is to be composed of young men of from 17 years to draft age and of other volunteers not affected by the conscription act. The American Legion, he added, is to furnish instructors for the training of the organization's recruits.

"The Legion," Wilson said, "is most gratified to have the financial aid of the Wildcat staff in this undertaking. It is not the amount that is given that counts, but the spirit in which the donation is made. I have always believed that the youth of the University stand behind the needs of the nation, and this proves it in a most heartening manner."

Pearce said last night, that no salaries would be paid to anyone working on the magazine staff, but that he already had a number of volunteers, and expected more. He urged that sororities and fraternities as well as other campus organizations wishing to help, send members who could be used in selling the publication and in helping with promotion and publication.

Steps are being taken, he said, to have downtown organizations send copies of the magazine to draftees at Fort Knox and Fort Thomas.

Whitehouse To Speak

Grant Whitehouse, graduate student in the chemistry department, will speak on "Watch the Birdie" at a meeting of the University Photography club at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in room 204 of the Union building. It was announced yesterday.

Band To Work And Play Over Weekend

Organized In 1893

"Work" has always been the lot of bandmen, their very origin being the result of much individual initiative and industry.

The first semblance of a band was organized in 1893, gave a few peeps and died. It was not until 1905 that Commandant Wilson C. Burr, of the University military department, organized a permanent musical organization, deserving of the name, band.

"Rusty" Brutt, as he was known, gathered 18 would-be musicians and petitioned for permission to form a band. His request was granted, but no funds were appropriated for music, uniforms, instruments, or an instructor. So the commandant and his 18 proteges bought their own uniforms and instruments and introduced themselves. The first uniforms were cadet gray, like the University battalion. In 1907 khaki was made official and still later the boys were clad in olive drab.

First Sponsor Chosen

Margaret Smith had the honor of being the first band sponsor. Elect-

WILDCAT EDITOR PEARCE

"So that we can have the last laugh on Hitler."

19 FROSH COEDS
ARE PLEDGEDScholastic Group
To Initiate Friday

Nineteen women, 13 of whom are Lexington residents, were pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary scholastic fraternity, Friday afternoon in the Union building.

The only requirement for membership is a University standing of 2.5 for the first semester of the freshman year.

Initiation will be held at 5:30 p.m. Friday, in the Union building. Dean Sarah G. Blanding, honorary member, will give a dinner for new members and actives immediately after the initiation.

Pledges are Betty Jane Payne, Bernadine Aulick, Virginia Lipscomb, Martha Koppus, Carolyn Spier, Helen Harrison, Juanita Hingst, Celia Bederman, Anita Roos, Charline Lisansky, Adalyn Stern, Adrienne Hill, and Caroline Mason, all of Lexington.

Ruth Russell, Chicago, Ill.; Jeanette Hibbert, Xenia, O.; Frances Jenkins, Nashville, Tenn.; Mary Norma Weatherspoon, Fulton; Ellen Roper, Hopkinsville; and Agnes McDowell, Cynthia, Va.

McIntyre Is Head
Of ODK Delegation

Prof. R. D. McIntyre, national treasurer of Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary leadership fraternity, will head a delegation from the University chapter to the fourteenth national convention of the organization, Thursday through Saturday, at Louisiana State university, Baton Rouge.

Other delegates, who will leave for Louisiana Wednesday afternoon, are Prof. M. E. Potter, faculty adviser; James Wine, president of the local chapter and official delegate; Ralph Edwards, alumni adviser; and John Clarke, Jr.

Whitehouse To Speak

Grant Whitehouse, graduate student in the chemistry department, will speak on "Watch the Birdie" at a meeting of the University Photography club at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in room 204 of the Union building. It was announced yesterday.

'RED' NICHOLS
BOOKED TO PLAY
FOR FIRST PROMNix On Queens,
Lances Tapping,
Committee Says

Red Nichols and his 14 piece orchestra will play for the annual Junior prom, from 8 to 12 March 29, it was announced by the Union building director's office yesterday.

A date and a stag bid will be given to each junior, and either a date or stag bid will be given the seniors, Lida Stoll, bid chairman, said. "There will be no queens and no tapping ceremony by Lances this year," Ed Rankin, chairman of the prom committee announced yesterday.

Featuring vocals by Lorraine Barre, Nichols' band was called "the surprise sensation of 1940" by George Simon, reviewer for Metronome magazine. The band became famous 10 years ago when it introduced the "five pennies" group which is still part of the organization.

INSKO TO SPEAK
AT AG BANQUETEvent To Follow
Poultry Show

Prof. W. M. Insko, head of the poultry department, will be guest speaker at a banquet to be held Tuesday night in the Union building after the baby chick show, sponsored by the Poultry club, in the Stock Judging pavilion.

Those to be present are hatcherymen from over the state who enter chicks in the show, members of the Poultry club, show judges, and faculty members of the poultry department.

Six classes of entries in the seventh annual show will be white and barred Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds, New Hampshire whites, Leghorns, and a miscellaneous class.

Students are not eligible to enter chicks in the show, but may enter the student chick judging contest.

Floyd Heird, Lexington, is chairman of the show, and Harry Lindenberg, Henderson, is secretary.

Martin Publishes Article

Miss Laura Martin, library science teacher, has published an article titled, "The Librarian Looks On" in the roundtable section of the March issue of the "English Journal."

Second Annual
Style Show
To Be March 21

Spring fashions will be shown in the second annual Student Union style show at 8 p.m. Friday, March 21, in the Bluegrass room. Men's and women's apparel will be included.

Women's spring fashions will be modeled by University women. Jane Anne Evans is in charge of arrangements for this portion and Bob Hillemeyer, Kernel business manager of the men's part.

In connection with the show, the Kernel will publish a fashion issue that day. The ballroom will be open at 7:30 p.m. to permit inspection of displays and dancing will follow the showing.

Page Will Lecture
To Students, Faculty
In Music Room Today17 COEDS GET
HONORARY ROTC
APPOINTMENTSNew Company
Formed To Care
For Overflow

Official appointment of 17 coeds to honorary ranks of colonel, lieutenant-colonel, and captain in the ROTC was announced yesterday by Maj. John E. Brannon, of the military science department.

The appointments of Mattigene Palmore, Colonel, regimental sponsor; Peggy Denny, lieutenant-colonel, second-in-command; Peggy Shumate, captain, sponsor, Company C-1, Pershing Rifles; and Barbara Marie Rehm, captain, sponsor, ROTC band, had been announced previously, but were not official until yesterday.

Because of the large ROTC enrollment this year a new unit, Company L, was formed to take care of the overflow from the other companies. Caroline Conant, Chi Omega, was named sponsor.

Coeds receiving honorary positions as lieutenant-colonels and battalion sponsors were Jean Elliott, first battalion, Mary Louise Weisenberger, second battalion, and Jane Bayham, third battalion.

Appointed as captains and sponsors of the companies were Betty Mitchell, Company A; Bettie Redish, Company B; Louise Ewan, Company C; Lida Stoll, Company E; Jean Marie McConnell, Company F; Julia Johnson, Company G; Mary Duncan, Company H; Dorothy Beeler, Company I; and Geneva House, Company K.

Accompanied by Mrs. Page, he arrived Sunday to preach at the First Methodist church. He spoke to students last night on the chief weakness and major enemies of American democracy.

"Living Prayerfully," Mr. Page's latest book, "Religious Resources," and "Living Creatively," three of his most widely-known books will be on display at the lecture.

Mary Garner, co-chairman of the speaker's appearances, will preside at the meetings today. Asher Easle, YM co-chairman, presided last night.

Guignol's Nazi Satire
Will Aid British CauseBenefit Show
Will Be Given
On March 24

A hold-over performance of "Margin for Error," Guignol theater's Nazi satire which opens Monday, will be held March 24 for the benefit of the University Bundles for Britain chapter, according to Frank Fowler, Guignol director.

Student ticket books and Guignol season tickets will not be accepted at the benefit performance so that the entire proceeds may be donated to the relief organization.

Tickets for the performance will be sold by members of the Bundles for Britain chapter on the campus and in fraternity and sorority houses. Downtown areas will also be included in the ticket campaign, chapter officials announced.

Emblems Will Be Held

At the performance, members of the chapter will serve coffee in the lounge between acts and sell emblems and cosmetics before and after the performance.

Students interested in joining the Bundles for Britain chapter have been asked to attend the meeting of the group at 4 p.m. today in room 204 of the Union building. No knitting or sewing is included in the chapter's campus program. Margaret Blackerby, president, declared. Emphasis will be on raising funds.

Party For Author

A tea or bridge party for Phyllis Bentley noted author and lecturer, when she addresses the Women's club of Central Kentucky in the spring will be among the group's activities. The author is known to be a supporter of the Bundles for Britain program.

The campus chapter was organized over two weeks ago by Mrs. James Straus, publicity chairman for the Fayette county unit.

Officers are Margaret Blackerby, Lexington, president; Mary Anne Farbach, Anchorage vice president; Orel Ruth, Fremont, Ohio, secretary; Edna Herring Covington, treasurer; and Marcia Randall, Lexington, publicity chairman.

Cullen Will Speak

Robert K. Cullen, head of the Statutes Revision commission at Frankfort, will address law college students at a special convocation at 10 a.m. Thursday, in Lafferty hall, it was announced yesterday.

Luncheon Talk
Will Be Held
In Football Room

Kirby Page, author, lecturer, and world traveler, will speak to students, faculty, and townspeople at 4 p.m. today on "Christianity's Answer to Totalitarianism" and at 7 o'clock tonight on "How Can We Defend American Democracy?" Both lectures are to be in the Music room of the Union building, according to officials of the YW-YM, co-sponsors of his appearance on the campus.

The role of students in the world crisis today will be discussed by Mr. Page at an informal luncheon at noon today in the Football room. Bart Peak, executive secretary of the YMCA, said yesterday that any student who wished to attend should get his lunch in the Commons cafeteria and take it to the football room. Mr. Page's subject will be "What Should Christian Students Do During the Present Crisis?"

Accompanied by Mrs. Page, he arrived Sunday to preach at the First Methodist church. He spoke to students last night on the chief weakness and major enemies of American democracy.

"Living Prayerfully," Mr. Page's latest book, "Religious Resources," and "Living Creatively," three of his most widely-known books will be on display at the lecture.

Mary Garner, co-chairman of the speaker's appearances, will preside at the meetings today. Asher Easle, YM co-chairman, presided last night.

Caywood To Speak
About Marriage

Dr. Charles C. Caywood of the Lexington and Fayette county health department will speak to men on the medical aspects of marriage at 7:15 p.m. Thursday in the Y lounge.

Sponsored by the YM-YW, the speech is second in a series of four forums on marriage. Dr. Caywood will speak to women on the same subject next Thursday.

Dr. Caywood, who was born in Holland and received his medical degree from Johns Hopkins university, is considered an authority on his subject, according to Bart Peak, YMCA executive secretary.

Kampus
Kernels

Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalism fraternity, and the Cub club will meet at 4 p.m. today, in Room 51, McVey hall.

Pitkin club will meet at noon Wednesday at the Maxwell Street Presbyterian church.

There will be a compulsory meeting of The Kernel society staff and the Campus Originals guild at 3 p.m. Friday, in The Kernel newsroom.

The Poultry club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, in the Dairy building.

NYA time sheets are due in the offices of the deans of men and women by noon Wednesday, it was announced yesterday.

Women students interested in Red Cross knitting should meet between 4 and 6 p.m. Wednesday, in Boyd hall reading room. Dean Holmes announced.

UNION NOTES

Today

Phi Alpha Theta, 4:30 p.m., Great Hall.

YM-YW, 4-5:30 p.m., Music room.

Business Education club, 5-6 p.m., Room 204.

Panhellenic, 5-6 p.m., Room 205.

Bundles for Britain, 4-5 p.m., Sophomore commission, 7-8 p.m., Room 204.

YW cabinet, 8:15 p.m., Room 206.

Wednesday

SuKy, 5 p.m., Room 204.

Lances, 5-6 p.m., Room 205.

Cyma, 5 p.m., Room 206.

THE KENTUCKY KERNEL
OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR
EXCEPT HOLIDAYS OR EXAMINATION PERIODS
Entered at the Post Office at Lexington, Kentucky, as second class matter under the Act of March 3, 1879.
MEMBER—
Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association
Lexington Board of Commerce
REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.
College Publisher: Representative
420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
CHICAGO EDITOR - LOS ANGELES - SAN FRANCISCO
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
$1.00 One Semester - $2.00 One Year
Hereby Shall The Kernel All Students Rights Maintain

A Proper Cause
For Bewilderment
I would ask no one to defend a democracy which in turn would not defend everyone in the nation against want and privation. The strength of this nation shall not be diluted by the failure of the government to protect the economic well being of all citizens.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, Dec. 29, 1940.

Last week a committee of nation-wide scope conducted an educational campaign known as "National Sharecroppers Week". Headed by Dr. Frank P. Graham, President of the University of North Carolina, and numbering among its members such outstanding men as John Dewey, William Faulkner, and Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia, the organization called attention to the crucial plight of the millions who form so large a part of the United States' infamous "one-third-of-a-nation".

To many persons in this country, the campaign was doubtless a revelation. But to those who have travelled the back-roads of Florida, the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana, the need for publicizing the condition of America's twentieth century peons is always highly evident.

Such travellers, having seen for themselves, are not surprised to learn there are 8,000,000 sharecroppers living below the Mason and Dixon Line. Or that in some sections annual incomes run as low as $68. Or that for 1,500,000 Southern families the yearly average is around the $200 mark.

Such people are aware there are numerous causes for these near-starvation conditions: worn-out land, primitive methods of cultivation, lack of equipment, ineagre sharing of crop profits, disease, ignorance.

But the greatest single cause, they know, is the poll tax.

Because of the poll tax, only one out of every four share-croppers is able to vote. And in America the right to vote is closely correlated with the opportunity to secure one's economic well-being.

As a result of the tax, governors and state and national representatives in the South of today do not represent the people as a whole. They represent the apple growers of Virginia, the cotton planters of Alabama and Mississippi, the lumbermen of Georgia, the real estate agents of Florida. And these men have neither the time nor the inclination to bother themselves with trichoma and hookworm and erosion and illiteracy.

And so it must have been a trifle bewildering to the sharecroppers of Dixie to hear the head of the government say that no one would be expected to "defend a democracy which would not defend everyone in the nation against want and privation."

It must bewilder any man to be able to recall that when he registered in the summer to vote for a President, he was asked to pay a tax; but that when he registered in the fall to get his draft number, they let him register for nothing.

'Ask Not For Whom
The Bell Tolls . . .

It's initiation time on the campus again—"house week," the Greeks call it in their more guarded moments—and as usual the Interfraternity council is forced to emulate the old woman who lived in a shoe.

The council seems to be trying hard enough to enforce the "house week" rules adopted so straight-facedly by the fraternities and sororities last October, but it doesn't appear to be getting the cooperation it rightfully should.

The Greeks merely look pious when the council inspectors come around, and wink at each other when the councilors' backs are turned, and go on with their hazing as per schedule when they leave.

We were afraid when the new code was adopted that this sort of thing would happen. It always does, in spite of the honest good intentions of the council.

Thus far, here are a few of the major "incidents" of the initiation period—some of which, we are informed, will be investigated by the council as soon as the prank season is over:

▲ One fraternity maintained its official "freshman uniform" of bowler, wing collar, ascot tie, monocle, spats, and walking stick—in spite of council warnings that such action would be in violation of the no-public-exhibitionism clause of the new code.

▲ Two sororities violated the same clause, having their pledges carry alarm clocks and other sundry equipment.

▲ Four pledges of one fraternity spent Friday night in the city jail, having been picked up by police in Chicago Bottoms looking for four black cats to take back to the actives as tokens of their sincerity in wanting to become actives themselves.

THE KERNEL has seen this sort of stuff go on for years now, and has realized that it is pretty silly and has therefore often expressed its opposition.

We have said time and again that public hazing injures the reputation of the University and does more harm than good to the fraternities themselves.

We intend to keep on saying it, and to work with the Interfraternity council in whatever attempts it makes to do something about it.

School Of Minnows, No Doubt!

By J. HOWARD HENDERSON

(Editor's note: The following column by J. Howard Henderson, Frankfort political writer, appeared in yesterday's issue of the Courier-Journal. We thought it might be of interest to University students and faculty members—especially to those having Phi Beta Kappa keys.)

One day last week a small headline in the Courier-Journal read: "U. K. Offers Courses In Billiards, Fishing."

The item was only ten lines long. But in the work I do you learn pretty soon not to measure a story with a yardstick. The headline was a little, eight-point affair, down at the very bottom of the State news page. It told the whole story. . . . billiards, fishing."

When I was younger and at U. K. I had a try at College Algebra and Greek (until I saw that Greek was not for me) and the conservative texts of the times. I even tried billiards at downtown poolrooms with the indifferent results of the self taught.

I vaguely sensed that what I wanted was not in textbooks on Greek and Algebra, so I junked the entire college enterprise. When I started all over again a year or two later at Bowling Green I would have nothing to do with mathematics, or Latin or French, to the great disgust of Dean Kennaman who wanted me to work for a degree.

Instead I pattered around with what subjects interested me, and quit after a while to take a political job. Always a feeling took me back to U. K. for a summer term of law, only to see again that this was not what I had missed.

Last week those who frame the scholastic courses caught up with me. To be taught to fish—ah! there is indeed the end of the rainbow, when fishing is best and where precious nuggets are to be had for the taking. Grand Old U. of K.!

It's been many a year now since I touched a billiard cue. But fishing poles, man, if you ever want to stick your beans and I have quit fishing I know where you can get plenty if my son is willing. But he'll not be.

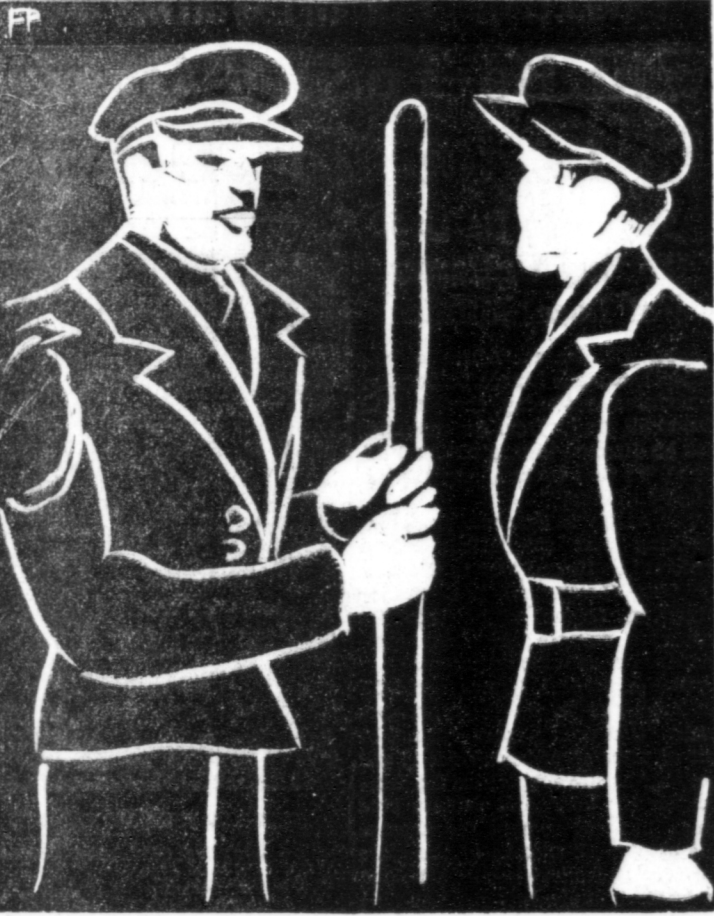

He will be going to U.K. before he's through kindergarten. To be taught to fish before one's life is spent—that's education. I want us to get there—my son and I—before the line forms. . . .

The trustee's don't know what they are in for. The Governor will have to spend his Emergency Fund. Kentucky's largest housing project will be required. From all over Kentucky they'll be coming for their education—old men who studied Greek and old men found their Greek in fishing . . . young men . . . natives . . . the naturalized . . . black . . . and white . . . and women.

To be taught how to cast where they are, when they are . . . to be taught how to thread a worm on a hook . . . to drop a fly precisely . . . to land them after they strike—that's education! It will be harder to learn than science, or arts, or engineering, or law. But it will be worth it.

So I'm going back to school. The Commonwealth will furnish the instruction. The Commonwealth will protect the lakes and streams. Maybe the Commonwealth (God bless her) will furnish the fish. After school I'm going fishing. I'm serious.

'...Know The Boys Better'

MUSICAL MUTTERINGS

By BILL PENICK

One of the most potent influences in modern jazz has been the compositions and ideas of William Basie, better known as the "Count." The Count was one of the first great musicians to come from Kansas City and he set a tradition which has not been equaled by any other KC jazzman. Like most top colored bands Basie's group contains today many of the men who were with him at the start.

The Count's rhythm section, composed of Basie at the piano, Freddie Green on guitar, Walter Page on bass and Joe Jones handling the drums, is recognized almost unanimously among musicians to be the most solid group in the business. All four are excellent soloists but their work as a unit has attracted more attention to the band than any other parts of the organization. The remainder of the band is made up of four trumpets, three trombones and five saxes. Helen Humes sings the sweet songs, while Jimmy Rushing's blues' singing ranks with the best.

The band is best at a rocking blues tempo, but their rhythm section makes everything they play hit a solid groove. The Count has written some of the most noted swing numbers himself. Among them are "One O'Clock Jump, Sent For You Yesterday," "Topsy, Swinging The Blues and Doggin' Around. In addition Basie has collaborated with Benny Goodman in composing tunes ray and Peyton Mitchell, Chio Irene Cole and Gene Kirkpatrick, and DDD Dora Perry and Ray Burnette.

Seen Around: Chio Agnes "Tub" Eckles forsaking the home town boy for local talent; Kappa Peg Tallman, Jimmy Keen, Sally Cannon and Johnny Clark making the rounds Friday night; AGR's Joe Gayle and Gerald Schaffer going for blondes in a big way, namely, Dot Lancaster and Betty Sagaser.

Margaret "Tribly" Hook jaunting to Centre for the Beta Forum; KA Ralph Fulton, of Georgetown, beating a path over here to see Alpha Gam Joyce Thomas; ZTA "Ease" Barnard and Bill McCubbin renewing their courtship; Phi Delt Tommy Walker trying to pin Tri Delt Peggy Shumate; Pi Phi Joyce Archer, a wandering Greek, being taken care of by the Deltas; and refreshing Catherine Wilson dining with Taverne Dunlap.

Delt "Kit" Kittenger was at a loss as to what to do when his steady from home arrived as the guest of his new interest here.

KD Katie Jo Carton threatens to take along a baseball bat the next time she goes out with a certain Phi Tau.

Greeting to Delt Ben Buffet, and many thanks to our colleague Mr. Hill.

Following the cancer lecture Thursday night, one bright student asked Dr. Rector, "Will alcohol cause cancer if taken orally?" Which really threw the audience in the aisles.

It was the opinion of several members at the meeting that if the time she goes out with a certain Phi Tau.

Greeting to Delt Ben Buffet, and many thanks to our colleague Mr. Hill.

Following the cancer lecture Thursday night, one bright student asked Dr. Rector, "Will alcohol cause cancer if taken orally?" Which really threw the audience in the aisles.

It was the opinion of several members at the meeting that if the time she goes out with a certain Phi Tau.

Greeting to Delt Ben Buffet, and many thanks to our colleague Mr. Hill.

WELL, I'LL BE DAMNED

By John Ed Pearce

WILD RADICALS I HAVE KNOWN
Pretty soon he moved in.

I guess your college career just isn't complete until you've known a few radicals. They're so picturesque. I doubt if any of you have known any real good, picturesque radicals, so I will tell you about a few, and if anyone ever asks you if you know any, you can say oh sure, and rattle off a few names.

When I was a freshman, I used to sit around the political science department for hours on end, trying to see Joe Internaggio, who was a radical. Dark tales were always told about Joe, he was a communist, everyone said, and probably very dangerous. Maybe, thought some of the girls on The Kernel, he was going to blow up the University.

He was picturesque, too.

Joe was a Russian, or something of the sort, and came from New York. All radicals come from New York. I tried to be a radical myself, but I had to give up because I was from Virginia, and everybody associated me with Carter Glass.

They wouldn't take me seriously, even when I advocated open revolution. They thought I was a howl. Always a kiddier, they said.

Joe was poor. All radicals are poor. That's why he was a radical, they said. He didn't have a decent suit of clothes to his name, and one time he slept in empty boxcars down in the freight yards when his landlady kicked him out.

He slept in the boxcars for almost a month. The month was January, which is seldom mild in Kentucky.

People wondered why he didn't quit. He never got enough to eat. Yet he was always very energetic, and could argue for hours on end. He had read everything, they said. All radicals read a lot. He was very smart.

I used to see Joe selling blue feathers to go in your hat at football games. I was embarrassed. He almost died once for lack of food. And he never had a suit.

Then came the day when he met John Bayne Breckinridge.

John was not a radical. John was an aristocrat, with a long stream of blue blood following him around like a snake. But he and Joe got to be good friends, and he would invite Joe out to dinner, so that he and his family could argue politics with him.

His family was not radical either. It had blue blood, too.

Joe always ate a lot, and argued a lot, and finally got to be a favorite with everybody there.

Student Approves
Interfrat Council's
Dance Decision

To the Editor of The Kernel:
Concerning letters or articles written about the Interfraternity council meeting in the issues of last week's Kernel:

Not a few false accusations have been made on the Interfraternity and Pan-Hellenic council case. I attended both the Sunday and Wednesday meetings of the Pan-Hellenic and Interfraternity councils. John Conrad called the special joint meeting on Sunday at the request of several members of both councils.

These members requested the meeting because they had heard rumors that the University Social committee intended doing away with Fraternity formal and the rumor was strengthened due to the fact that this committee was holding a meeting the following day to discuss next year's social program.

It was the opinion of several members at the meeting that if the

Pete was always wanting to hold peace strikes, or have a meeting against something going on in Washington. He didn't like the military much. He read the Daily Worker, and quoted it like a preacher quoting the Bible.

It was pretty awful about John Breckinridge, too, I guess. He isn't conservative any more, they say. I hear that he is a left-winger, and is in Washington working for the New Deal.

Then there was Pete Gragis. Pete was a tall and lanky, and although he had enough to eat, he never looked like it. Pete had eyes with a worried, far-away look in them, and when he got mad or excited, they popped out like somebody was squeezing him by the neck.

His face got red, too, and the veins stood out in his neck when he got excited, and that was often because every time he got into an argument he would get excited, and he was always in an argument.

He really believed in what he said, which was a laugh.

Nobody took him seriously. They said the only reason he was a communist was because he didn't want other people to have something he didn't have. They wanted to know why he didn't go on back to Russia.

Pete was always wanting to hold peace strikes, or have a meeting against something going on in Washington. He didn't like the military much. He read the Daily Worker, and quoted it like a preacher quoting the Bible.

He was shot with it.

One day I asked Pete what he was going to do when he got out of school. He got that far-away look in his eye, and said that he thought he would go to China, and get a job driving trucks over the Burma road, to help the Chinese people. He said they were a great people, and that liberty was at stake.

Last week I heard from Pete. He really did it, too. These nights, when you are pounding your car in a warm bed, or lapping up the suds, just give a thought to Pete, the radical. He's plowing through dirty mud on the Burma road, trying to get food and bandages in to the Chinese people. His eyes are buggin' out, and the veins in his neck are popping out when the Japanese planes come over, blasting him and his truck to hell and back.

I bet it would gripe the hell out of Pete if he ever thought for a minute that he is playing right along in line with the administration in Washington.

fraternities and sororities gave up their formal voluntarily, it would be easier to deal with the social committee, and to replace the program with a larger Interfraternity or Pan-Hellenic dance and social program, than if they attempted to buck the committee.

The substitute social program (as accepted last Sunday by a 14 to 5 vote) would consist of one large council dance each semester with a "name" orchestra in addition to a dinner or tea dance to be given if desired, by each organization each semester. There would also be the usual "Union" dances, Military Ball, Junior Prom, Senior Prom, etc.

However, if the Social committee does not force the fraternities and sororities to give up their formal, this same group of members wanted the same social program in use at the present time. Conrad was of the opinion as this group.

The reason that the various members did not confer with their Greek organizations before they voted was because action had to be taken before the meeting of the Social committee the following day.

In a letter in Tuesday's Kernel signed "A Fraternity Man," the writer said that many cold nights were in store for the Greeks if the coun-

Union Barber Shop
YOUR GUARANTEE OF
QUALITY & COMPLETE
SATISFACTION
FREE $30.00 in Records FREE
$10.00 Individual Prize
$10.00 Fraternity Prize
$10.00 Sorority Prize
For
The Greatest Collection Of
SPUD and TWENTY-GRAND Wrappers
Sponsored By
AXTON - FISHER TOBACCO CO.
Deadline—April 30th 1941
See Laura Lyons — Campus Representative

MICHLER
Florist
CUT FLOWERS
and
CORSAGES
417 E. Maxwell
Phone 1419

Geo. H. Crumrine
Watch-maker
116 1/2 So. Limestone St.
Phoenix Block Lexington, Ky.

BEFORE-AFTER SHOE REPAIR

You may be a highriding bronco buster when it comes to personality, but if you want to keep your attractive cowboyish figure you better have your heels repaired. We do a mighty fine job, pahdner.

Harber Shoe Repair

We Call and Deliver
209 E. Main Phone 252

Alumni News - -

Olive M. Brown, '32, teacher of Kanawha elementary school, Charleston, W. Va., has moved from 1814 East Washington street, to 3802 Noyes avenue, Charleston. . . . Harry S. Traynor, '35, engineer for Carrier corporation, Syracuse, N. Y., new resides at 108 Summit avenue, Syracuse. He was married recently to Helen Mae Ingalls of Syracuse. He is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. . . . Lt. Col. John W. McDonald, '15, formerly with the historical section of the Army War College, Washington, D. C. was recently transferred to the Armored Force replacement center, Fort Knox.

Louise B. McGoldrick, '40, from Versailles, assistant home demonstration agent for Fayette county since last fall, has been transferred to a similar position in Anderson county. She should be addressed at Lawrenceburg. . . . 1st Lt. David Linwood Arnall of Lexington, former student of the University of Kentucky, and geologist with the Kentucky State Highway Department for the past two years, has been ordered to report for active duty at Fort Knox. His wife, Virginia Lamb, '35, will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Lamb at Franklin. Lt. Arnall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff L. Arnall, 734 Tremont avenue, Lexington.

John H. Hieber, '32, salesman for Schenley Distillers, Covington, now resides at 1119 Isabella street, Newport. . . . A. W. Eyer, '31, branch manager of the Holland Furnace company, Jefferson City, Mo., has been transferred and now lives at 731 East First street, Apartment No. 8, Duluth, Minn. . . . H. M. (Bing) Miller, Jr., '37, formerly an engineer with the U.S. government at Atlanta, is now 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Army at Camp Croft, S. C. He and Mrs. Miller (Sallie M. Stewart, '35) reside at 688 East Main street, Sparta, S. C. . . . Nelle W. Chipman, '26, teacher of home economics at 120 West Lee street, Louisville, resides at Hampton Hall Apartments, Louisville.

Waldo D. Knight, '37, formerly connected with the laboratory aircraft division of Thompson Products, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, is now in training with Company B, 145th Infantry, A.P.O., 37th Division, Camp Shelby, Miss. . . . Carroll P. Lewis, '38, is engineer at NACA, Langley Air Field, Hampton, Va. He resides at 140 Pochin place, Indian River park, Hampton, Va. . . . Meyer Freyman, '25, and Mrs. Freyman, (Evelyn Gall, '33) have moved from Arlington, Va., to 3511 Davenport street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Mr. Freyman is assistant regional representative of the Bureau of Employment Security, Social Security Board, 620 Bond building, 14th and New York avenue, N. W., Washington.

And Now For The Viewpoint Of The 'Yank In Kentucky'

To the Editor of The Kernel:

I've read Mr. F. E. Bond's letter of February 14, and the letters of the seemingly belligerent Messrs. Coale and Prewitt of February 21 in The Kernel. All three have impressed me as being rather silly. Although I am a "Dam' Yankee," I respect the philosophy of both Mr. Prewitt and Mr. Bond. This is the South, and Southerners do love their ideals and traditions to uphold. Many Northerners disagree with these ideals, but differences of opinion makes the world an interesting place in which to live.

Mr. Coale may point out that the Southerners do not treat the Negroes with the respect that he feels is due to them, but the Southerners will treat them as they please, most probably, regardless of what Mr. Coale has to say.

Why make an issue of it? Are we not making mountains out of mole hills? One can write reams in regard to the question, but for every utterance of a Yankee, there will be an answer by a Southerner. Nothing will be accomplished. After the belligerents have subsided, both groups will have unchanged opinions.

Let's be Americans and live in the present, not in the past. The Civil War is over, why start it again? Let the South have its traditions and ideals, and the North its differences of opinion. This three-ring literary circus will accomplish nothing.

Just a word to the Northerners and Southerners and I'll step down off my soap box and return to my blissful obscurity. To the Northerners: When in Rome, do as the Romans do! If you don't like it, "g'wan home to mother."

To the Southerners: Not all of us Yankees possess, (to quote Mr. Prewitt), a "damned-Yankee selfishness, bluntness, lack of respect for tradition, total disregard for family name or prestige, and an 'always in a hurry attitude.'" Some of us are really refined people who were bought up to be ladies and gentlemen. Some of us are very friendly; lots of Southerners have found us so.

I was playing cards one night with a group of friends, all Kentuckians. I left the room for a moment and went next door. I accidentally overheard the following conversation:

"Who is that guy," asked one boy. "Oh, he's a Yankee," was the reply. "You're kidding," said the first, "he can't possibly be a Yankee. Why, he's a regular guy!"

To both Northerners and Southerners: Intolerance is begotten from ignorance. It is foolish to publicly display ignorance!

(Signed)

A New York Yankee in Kentucky.

Courtesy Lafayette
DOROTHY D. VAUGHN

She's Delta Zeta's new president.

GRANT LEWIS

Kappa Alpha fraternity selected this junior as its new president.

Colonel Black Will Discuss Womens' Defense Work

Coed Knitting Group To Begin Work Tomorrow

Women interested in national defense work are urged to hear Lieut. Col. Percy Black, of Fort Knox, at a dinner meeting of the International Relations class at 6:30 p.m., today, in the Union building, by Dea Sarah B. Holmes, chairman of the defense committee.

"Problems of Defense" will be the subject of the talk, and students may attend the dinner or merely come to the lecture, Dean Holmes announced. Admission price to the banquet is 60 cents.

Three Years In Berlin

Lieutenant Colonel Black spent the last three years in Berlin as an assistant military attaché. After his return to this country last fall, he was stationed in Fort Knox.

Campus defense work includes first aid classes, radio and code work, and cooperation with the Red Cross.

in knitting a bandage rolling. Women interested in this work are requested to report to the dean of women's office this week, Dean Holmes said.

The first meeting of the Red Cross knitting group will be held from 4 to 6 p.m., tomorrow, in the reading room of Boyd hall, Margaret Trent, chairman, announced, Mrs. J. S. Chambers is faculty adviser for the group.

Radio Instruction

First aid classes will meet under the instruction of Miss Ann Fisher, nurse at the residence hall, at 7 p.m. each Thursday during April. Fundamentals of radio operation and code signals will be taught by D. G. Steele, professor of genetics.

All women who wish to learn to drive are requested to leave their names at the office of the dean of women, and instruction periods will be arranged, Dean Holmes said. This movement is being held in connection with the Union safety driving campaign.

To The Queen's Taste

By MARY LYLE

Editor's note: This is the first of a series of columns dealing with the various "queens" of the campus. Who they are, where they come from, their habits and hobbies, their aims and ambitions.

A lot of people think all beautiful girls are dumb. If they're right, then beauty queen Virginia Smith with her two standing is an exception to the rule.

"Smith" will occupy the Number One Good Looks Page in the 1941 Kentuckian. She is also one of the activity girls—somehow she doesn't seem as obtrusive about it as most. She's president of the Panhellenic council, but just talking to her, you'd never know it.

Virginia's hobbies are collecting perfume bottles, and swimming. The desire of her life now is to be able to play a good game of tennis. Her pastimes are knitting and listening to semi-classical music. When it comes to seeing a picture show or eating, says Virginia, "I'll take the movie."

Her ambition is to do personnel work or to be a buyer for a woman's store. Right now she is leading up to the first idea by working in the personnel office in the Administration building. She is in charge of the education majors' and freshman files. Along this same line is her position as rush chairman for Kappa Kappa Gamma.

A personal description of Virginia would be difficult. To do it roughly, she has blue eyes, blond hair, and dark eyebrows, and is 5 feet 6 inches tall.

Virginia will graduate in June, majoring in English and minoring in psychology.

Summing up the type of boy Virginia likes, she prefers those who have some ambition in life and can carry on an intelligent conversation;

VIRGINIA SMITH

She'll take the movies.

also, one who is well built and taller than she.

Her pet hate is to be asked, "Well, what would you like to do?" She likes the ones who know what they want to do in the evening, and suggest places to go.

Delts Give Banquet For New Initiates

The members of Delta Tau Delta entertained with a banquet Saturday night at the chapter house in honor of the new initiates of the fraternity.

Flowers and colors of the fraternity were used as decorations. Thomas Bowling, social chairman, was in charge of the affair.

The guests of honor were Harrison Dixon, of Henderson; Early Vaughn Dulworth, of Greensburg; Everett Elsey, of Lexington; William Fulton and Robertson Kagan, of Frankfort; Jack McNeal, of Ashland; Carlisle Myers, of Lexington; Kenneth Rush, of Versailles; James Satterfield, of Henderson; and Warren Shonert, of Palmouth.

The Social Whirl

Sigma Chi

Recent dinner guests at the house were Mary Lyle, Julia Johnson, Anne Pettit, Margaret Litsey, Helen Drake, Barbara Rehm, Dora Peery, Elsi Warren, Gertrude Breckinridge, Pat Doyle, Epie Hughes, Dawson Hawkins, Ann Kirk, and Tat Allen. . . . James Stephenson, of Pikeville, was a week-end visitor at the house. . . . Richard Koch spent the weekend in Louisville. . . . Al Funk went to Frankfort for several days. . . . Gale Neal visited in Huntington, W. Va., over the week-end. . . . Dick Gerrish was a guest at Fort Knox to take a West Point exam.

Delta Delta Delta

Beverly Conner, Jo Howard, Hal Maynard, Marie Brackett, Mary Marrs Board, Ruth Harris, Naomi Estill, Clark Wood, and Harry Denham were recent luncheon guests. . . . Betty Rose went to Fort Thomas for the week-end. . . . Angie Jett attended the Stag-Williams wedding in Danville.

Alpha Sigma Phi

Luncheon guests during the week were Geneva Rose, Martha Wheatley, Mrs. W. Cory, of Concord, N. H., and Paul Rice, of Rochester, N. Y.

Kappa Alpha

Dinner guests recently were Ann Land, Mary Herrington, Edith Welsensberger, Adrienne Hill, Gertrude Breckinridge. . . . Ensign John Sweeney from Annapolis was a guest of Ben Lowery last week-end.

Delta Tau Delta

Pat Doyle, Julia Johnson, Jane Lancaster, Elizabeth Gotttron, Dot Beeler, Liz Wallace, Elizabeth Brown and Ben Buffett were recent luncheon and dinner guests at the house.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Recent dinner guests at the chapter house were Joyce Archer, Martha Adams, Betty Avent, Betsy Lou Blevins, Marion Bradford, Carolyn Breeding, Edna Herring, Dorothy Keltch, Margaret Marks, Isabelle Pescher, Amelia Killian, and Jane Stotts. . . . Mr. Roy D. Hickman of Birmingham, Alabama, national president of Pi Kappa Alpha inspected Omega chapter Thursday afternoon. . . . Frank Basham is spending a few days in Washington, D. C. . . . Charles Gary spent the week-end in Rising Sun, Ind. . . . Franklyn Foster was a visitor in Louisville over the week-end. . . . Ensign Billy Sugg, president of Omega chapter last year, was a visitor at the house this week on his way from the Naval Reserve Training School in New York to San Francisco. He will be stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. . . . Al Sauer spent the week-end at the house.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Violet Owen, Pat Doyle, Joan Taylor, Mary Louise Monarch, Mary V. Gibson, Mary Downing, Anne Conner, Ann Moore, Mary Ray, Laura Cleveland, Harriet Hord, and Andy Duke. . . . Gilbert Wymond of Louisville and Jim Doyle of Terre Haute, Ind., were visitors at the house over the week-end.

KAs Announce

Election Of Officers

Theta chapter of Kappa Alpha announces the election of the following officers: President, Grant Lewis; vice-president, Joe Logan Massie; secretary, James Woodridge; treasurer, Mead Ferris; corresponding secretary, Ross Hunter; historian, Richard Stoll; censor, Lloyd Robertson; doorman, Edward Bowne; usher, Ben Lowry.

America's first globe map factory was founded by James Wilson at Bradford, Vt., in 1813.

TRY KERNEL CLASSIFIEDS

MEN

BE WELL

GROOWED

Union Barber Shop

Good Food

at the
Kosher Restaurant

The SWELL Place
to spend your
Evening

BENTON'S TAVERN

One mile out
on Richmond Road

Sandwiches
Drinks,
and Music

CURB SERVICE

Official AAA Service

TAYLOR TIRE COMPANY

(Incorporated)
Complete One-Stop Service
PHONE 2620 Vine at Southeastern Ave. 24 HOUR SERVICE

The Lexington Y.W.C.A. Sponsors
A SPECIAL COURSE IN BALLROOM DANCING
FOR UNIVERSITY STUDENTS
And young business men and women

6 ONE HOUR LESSONS

DANCING

BEGINNERS CLASS $1.50 ADVANCED CLASS
FUNDAMENTAL INSTRUCTION IN CONGA
FOX, TROT, WALTZ TANGO
JITTERBUG
Complete. No more to pay.

Tuition must be paid in advance
CLASSES START THURSDAY NIGHT
BEGINNERS 7:30 P. M. ADVANCED 8:30 P. M.
Y.W.C.A. Bldg. Church and Mill Streets Ph. 7674

Kentucky Stickers . . .

which are ideal for your luggage
and car. 2 for 5c. Write us today for these blue and white emblems.

. . . College Seal Jewelry

This outstanding campus jewelry is available in gold and silver of classical design. Also pennants, sweaters and shirts with the Kentucky seal.

Stationery . . .

of fine linen finish with the University seal. Also bookends, pencils and pens personified with a seal of your school.

Campus Book Store

McVey Hall

Tastes good...costs little and swell fun to chew—
that's DOUBLEMINT GUM

Yes, chewing delicious DOUBLEMINT GUM is always swell fun . . . at sports events, between classes, while you're studying. DOUBLEMINT'S real-mint flavor refreshes your taste and helps sweeten your breath. And enjoying smooth chewing daily helps brighten your teeth, too. Kind to your budget. Great to enjoy every day. So drop in and buy several packages of DOUBLE MINT GUM today.

JONES BOX

The Campus Parade is constantly moving toward greater fun and enjoyment at JONES BOX BALL.

If you want to get back into the swing of collegiate entertainment, you will have to join the crowd at JONES BOX BALL.

BALL

When the votes are all counted in the campaign for pleasure—you'll find JONES BOX BALL way out in front.

407 JONES

South
Line

"We're Picketing For Jones"

407 JONES

Across
From Union Bldg.

Newfoundland with its area of 40,200 square miles is the 16th largest of the islands in the world.

Wood flour forms a constituent part of dynamite.

BIG DIPPER
"We specialize in home-made ice cream"
533 So. Limestone 533

STUDENTS — FACULTY
IT'S YOURS
The
Union Barber Shop

NEVER ENOUGH
Gibbs secretaries with college background to meet the demand!
Send for catalog describing Special
Course for College
Women.

Katharine Gibbs
220 Park Avenue, New York City
50 Marlborough St., Boston, Mass.

2 Plain Garments $1
Cleaned — Pressed

SHIRTS Laundered 10c
Cash and Carry

BECKER
Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co.
Phone 621—212 S. Lime—Curb Service
201 Woodland Rose and Lime
Fourth and Broadway

Have Your
Picture Made
For Easter

STOP FRETTING . . .

Put a smile on your face and have your picture taken. Lafayette will take an excellent photograph for you at reasonable rates.

Phone 6271 For Appointments.
LAFAYETTE STUDIO
301 W. MAIN

Classroom
Footnotes

"The Saddle"

"Campus Ace"

$3.95

"Campus Stroller"

Three hit shoes with "Campus wise"
style leaders. The authentic styling of these shoes has brought them unprecedented campus acceptance.
You can't go wrong on any of them

PHILLIPS

Meyer Will Teach
At Laboratory

Dr. Marvin C. Meyer, instructor in zoology, will teach invertebrate zoology this summer at the Chesapeake Biological Laboratory, Solomon's Island, Md., it was announced yesterday. The course lasts only six weeks, but Dr. Meyer will remain the duration of the summer, doing research work in the same field.

The laboratory, in the Chesapeake bay country, offers courses through the cooperations of seven institutions of Maryland and Washington, D. C.

Dr. Meyer has studied at similar laboratories at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, and at Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island. He received his doctor's degree from the University of Illinois.

30 Women Attend

Thirty women attended the opening session of the adult clothing construction class last week in the Education building.

RIFLE TEAM PLACES THIRD 13 Schools Shoot For Area Crown

The University ROTC rifle team, scoring 7621 points, placed third in a field of 13 schools in the Intercollegiate rifle match of the fifth corps area, Lieut. John L. Carter, coach of the team announced yesterday.

Indiana University, scoring 7630, was first, and Culver Military Academy, with 7622, was second. The local team placed seventh last year.

By virtue of being in the top three of this corps area, the team will begin firing next week in the national intercollegiate rifle match, sponsored by the war department. Teams from eight other areas will participate.

Other participants and scores in the match were the University of Cincinnati, first team, 7539; West Virginia university, 7511; Ohio university, 7483; Ohio State university, 7467; University of Akron, 7432; Rose Polytechnic Institute, 7427; University of Dayton, 7371; Western Kentucky State Teachers college, 7224; University of Cincinnati, second team, 6913, and Wilberforce university, 6666.

The ROTC team dropped the event by nine points to the Indiana school, and were topped by one point by the Culver Military Academy, which it had previously defeated this year. "It is not an unusual thing for a Kentucky team to place in the upper bracket," Lieut. Carter said yesterday. He based his statement on the past history of UK teams.

The varsity rifle team fired a "shoulder to shoulder" match against the University of Louisville Saturday, defeating them 927-905 points.

High scorer for the University was C. Brown, with 189. Other individual scores were Mitchell, 186; Davis, 184; Blythe, 184; Maxedon, 184; Gravis, 178; Prather, 177; Peyton, 175; and Layson, 182.

The University rifle team is firing this week in the William Randolph Hearst match, military officials said yesterday. The contest, which ends March 19, has attracted numerous schools from this area.

Glee Club Program Called Most Difficult In Groups' History

By ROBERT MILES

The most difficult program ever sung by the University Men's Glee Club was presented by the organization under the direction of Donald Allton Sunday afternoon in Memorial hall. This program given by a chorus of 70 men, the largest personnel in the Glee club's history, was recorded in the University radio studios.

A varied and interesting program was chosen. The performance of the glorious "Omnipotence" by Schubert revealed a remarkable balance between sections and a beautiful organ-like tone quality. The well expressed tenor obligatos were properly integrated with the group voices. The melancholy beauty of the two songs by Bach were brought out by an effective treatment of dynamics and shading.

Flexible response to the conductor and clear pronunciation of words characterized by a presentation of the humorous song "Old Man Noah" by Bartholomew. The melodic beauty of the two compositions by Dett was realized by means of accurate intonation and expressive humming.

A careful treatment of syncopated rhythm produced a wholesale and spontaneous effect in the Kentucky folk song "Sourwood Mountain." Clever piano accompaniment by Jean Marie McConnell and unusual phrasing added humor to the Western song "All Day On The Prairie" by Guion.

Old family
photographs
COPIED or RESTORED

BEFORE AFTER

This fragile old photograph was faded — cracked — and badly spotted. Our skillful artists copied it minutely — removed the cracks and spots — and brought out all the original details in the second beautiful photograph.

This same fine work can be done from your precious old photographs. Don't wait until they are destroyed by time! Bring them in today!

Prices range from $2 up
... depending upon the condition of your photograph

Jean Sardou Studio, 3rd Floor

Wolf Wile's
INCORPORATED

INTRAMURAL NET TOURNEY SCHEDULE
Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
SAE..... MG 7:00 p.m.
ATO.....	MG 7:00 p.m.
PKA..... MG 7:50 p.m.
DTD.....		MG 7:30 p.m.
AGR..... MG 8:40 p.m.
PKT.....	MG 7:50 p.m.
Triangles..... MG 9:30 p.m.
SN.....			GA-b 8:30 p.m. University Champs
Independent League
Outlaws.....
"K" Club..... MG 7:00 p.m.
	MG 8:40 p.m.
	Grave Diggers.....
	Jake's Ind.....	MG 8:30 p.m.
	MG 9:30 p.m.
	Daredevils.....
B and C Leagues
SAE.....
GA-b 7:30 p.m.
SN.....	GA-b 7:30 p.m.
AGR.....
GA-b 8:40 p.m.
ATO.....
SAE.....			GA-b 7:50 p.m. B & C League Champs
GA-c 7:00 p.m.
PKT.....	GA-b 8:30 p.m.
DTD.....
GA-c 7:50 p.m.
ATO.....

21 Teams Enter Final Stage Of Annual Basketball Tourney

Grave Diggers,
AGRs Favorites
For Championship

By HAROLD WINN

The 1941 intramural basketball tournament took its initial bow last night when 18 teams met in the opening round of the eliminations to decide the University cage championship and the supremacy of the B and C leagues.

A strong Grave Digger team and an unbeaten bunch of Alpha Gamma Rhos were pre-tournament favorites to meet in the finals for the university championship.

The Alpha Gamma Rhos were scheduled to meet the Phi Taus in the A league tournament and the winner of the Triangle-Sigma Nu struggle. In all probability it will be the Sigma Nu's against the Alpha Gamma Rhos when the referee's whistle starts tonight's game at 8:30 in the main gym.

The SAEs opened the A league tournament last night with the ATOs and the winners will play the survivor of the Phi Kappa Alpha-Delta fracas at 7 o'clock tonight in the main gym.

The Outlaws and the K club met last night in the only scheduled independent league game. The winner of this game meets the Grave Diggers at 8:40 tonight in the Alumni gym.

Only one winner will be selected as champ in the B and C leagues as these two divisions have been grouped into one tournament. Tonight the winner of the SAE-SN game plays the winner of the AGR-ATO battle at 7:30 in the B section of the gym annex. Following this game, the winners of the Phi Tau-SAE and Delta-ATO games meet in the same place.

Gal Sharpshooters Win Two Matches In Louisville

The U. K. Annie Oakleys opened their rifle season with a bang Saturday, winning their first matches of the year over the University of Louisville and the Louisville Girls' rifle teams in Louisville.

Scoring 488 points out of a possible 500, the University women's rifle team defeated the University of Louisville women's 488-443, Saturday afternoon at the Male high rifle range.

The University sharpshooters won over the Louisville girls' team, composed of women representing the city of Louisville, 491 to 459, that night in the Jefferson county armory.

Representing Kentucky in the afternoon match were Virginia Smith, who scored 100 points; Temperance Hazard, 98; Maureen Arthur, 97; Peggy Nevins, 97; and Ann Hatter, 96.

Others who made the Louisville trip were Edyth Heaton, Kathryn Pirkey, Sarah M. White and Coach Ray Gravis.

Phi Taus Sweep Handball Doubles; Singles Undecided

Phi Kappa Tau swept the handball doubles tournament, with two teams competing in the finals. John Samara and John Spicer triumphed over the team of "Tiny" Perry and Roland Lamb for the crown.

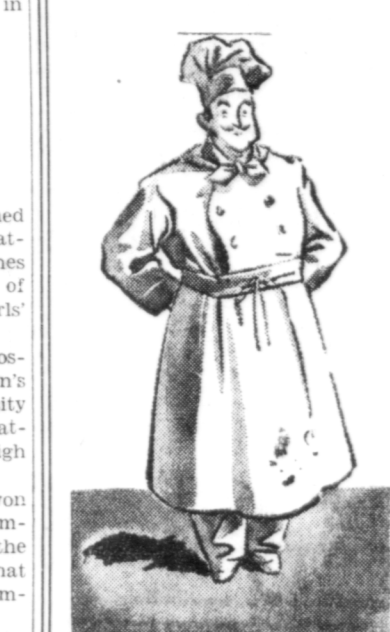

The singles will be decided today when Phi Tau John Samara meets "Link" Ellington, independent, independent, in the finals. Ellington won over ATO Roger Thornton in the semi-finals.

Committee Leads Discussion Groups

Discussion groups on campus problems are being held in each of the women's residence halls weekly during March under the auspices of the campus service committee of the YWCA.

Led by Mrs. E. G. Trimble, Mrs. J. K. Johnson, and Bart Peak, the women meet every Wednesday night to discuss men and women relationships, campus popularity, and the affect of college on religious faith.

The purpose of the groups is to find whether or not extensive discussion programs for women should be introduced on the campus next year. Janet Fergus, chairman of the committee said.

Sidney the Chef

Deadline Set For Entries In Other Sports

March 20 is the deadline for teams wishing to enter the singles and doubles in golf and diamond ball playoffs. Entries for singles and doubles teams in badminton are due by March 14.

Teams will consist of four men in the doubles of golf and badminton and five men will make up the teams in the singles of these two sports.

Entry fee for teams in badminton will be $1.00 per team and matches will start on March 17.

In diamond ball, the entry fee will be $2.00 per team and independent rosters will be limited to 15 men.

Officers To Recruit For Marine Corps

Lt. Charles Manning, Marine Corps liaison officer for the University, is at ROTC headquarters today recruiting men as candidates for reserve second lieutenant commissions in the Marine Corps. All candidates must have a college degree by June.

Lieutenant Manning said that candidates would be required to report at Marine headquarters in Philadelphia July 1st and remain in training till October 1st. After completing their necessary training, the men will be sent to the various Marine bases over the country.

DR. C. C. ROSS PUBLISHES BOOK Work Will Serve As College Text

"Measurement in Today's Schools," a new text book by Dr. C. C. Ross, professor of educational psychology, will come off the press this week, according to reports from Dr. Ross' office.

Describing the book, which will be used as a text for education colleges, as the first functional approach to the intelligent use and interpretation of measurement, the Prentice-Hall publishing company states that Dr. Ross has written a complete guide to the entire field of educational measurements.

Since the publication of the first book on educational measurements, some twenty-five years ago, most measurement texts have centered about subject matter. Dr. Ross has outlined the history and development of this comparatively young field, and has made available, for the first time, the wealth of experimental data brought forth in recent years.

"Measurement in Today's Schools" contains 608 pages and is listed at a college price of $3.25.

The name "Asia" comes from the Sanskrit "ushas," signifying "land of the dawn."

The Dutch are reported annoyed because the Nazis shipped most of their cheese off to Germany well its a strong reason.

Hughe's Restaurant
529 So. Limestone 529
"We serve Bruce's Juices"
in all flavors

Office and Laboratory
of
Younger Optical Co.
106 E. Main St. Phoenix Bldg.

Phoenix

"Do you really like my haircut?"

"Say,"

I'm glad, I got it at the Phoenix Barber Shop.
Their work is always the best.

Phoenix Hotel Barber Shop
Downstairs
Phone 3680

Elegant Fashions for your
EASTER ENTREE

It's a lucky suit that's worn over this Awning Striped Rollie Junior Blouse.

Sanforized shrunk chambray; white pique collar as affected by The Great Fleece . . . Sizes 9 to 15 . . . sketched right . . . 3.00.

(SPORTS ACLOVE)

perkins
INCORPORATED

"Because You Want To Be Different"

SIDNEY -- The Chef, -- Goes To France --

Whether it's in Paris, New York, or right here in Lexington, you'll find that good chefs the world over agree on the seasoning of food. There is but one way to cook a given food and that is the correct way. Our chefs have the experience and tradition of a long line of Southern cooks. Plus that our great increase in business enables us to serve foods at the lowest prices. Stop in the COMMONS today for a delicious meal.

WE SPECIALIZE IN STUDENT PARTIES,
LUNCHEONS, AND BANQUETS

STUDENT UNION COMMONS

Photograph Courtesy Miss Audrey Sparling

INSPIRATION

A SUNSET in all its glory, colors almost beyond man's concept, deep, rich-hued and mysterious on the deep, restless face of the water—an Inspiration to humanity since time began. Likewise, the smile of a little child, the shy glance of a maid and her man, the cheery glow of a fire on the hearth—the symbol of home, of love and America as we know it. These, too, have been the Inspiration which has made this a nation of homes. And, as the record of this store unfolds, year after year, we feel that we, too, have caught and shared with the people of our community this Inspiration of the American home for the generations to come.

Wheeler's
INCORPORATED
KENTUCKY'S FINEST FURNITURE STORE

UK Billiards Team Loses To Florida

The University billiards team lost to Florida university 374 to 479 in the Southern division of the national intercollegiate telegraphic billiards tourney Friday night.

Houston Curtis, Maysville, was high scorer for the Kentucky team with a total of 88.

Meet Postponed

The fencing match scheduled for Saturday, March 8 between the University fencing team and the Charlestown Fencers club has been rescheduled for next Saturday at the same time The Charlestown, W. Va. team was unable to make the trip because of icy roads.

TRY KERNEL CLASSIFIEDS

In the Spring —RELAX—

Enjoy a game of

- Billiards
- Pool
- Snooker

In our special recreation room!

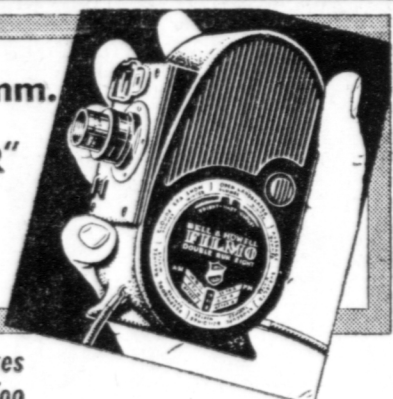

Phoenix
Hotel
Billiard Room

Come in And Try
Our Chinese
Food

WING'S
Tasty
American
Luncheon Only 35c

Filmo 8 mm.
"SPORTSTER"
Reduced to $69.50

The Movie Camera That Takes
SLOW-MOTION Pictures, Too

- Here's the camera for the sportsman... and at a new low price! Takes slow-motion as well as normal-speed movies, in full color or black-and-white. Film costs only a few cents a scene. Come in, see it.
- Fast Taylor-Hobson F 2.5 lens.
- "Drop-in" threading—no sprockets.
- Automatically reset film footage dial.
- Sealed-in, automatic lubrication.
- Versatility to keep pace with your progress.
- A lifetime guarantee.

HUBBARD & CURRY

Short and Lime

Druggist

Phone 1280

Phoenix

She wants to go to a Dance!

BUT

If you want to take her you'll have to be sure it's at the PHOENIX. She knows that a dance or Spring party is sure to be fun if it's in the Ball Room of...

The Phoenix Hotel

Phone 3680

Track Team Opens Practice; First Meet Set For April 12

Hanover Will Be First Opponent On Six-Meet Card

The University track team has been working out for the past three weeks preparing for their opening meet with Hanover April 12.

Coach Joe Rupert has been unable to supervise the practice sessions because of his football duties and Captain John Montgomery and Paul Durbin have been in charge of training activities. Durbin, former Wildcat distance man, is no longer a member of the team.

Coach Rupert is faced with the task of replacing Scholtz, Henning, and Durbin. Scholtz, an outstanding hurdler, did not return to school this fall as was the case with Henning, a miler. Durbin, a miler, was graduated last spring. The hardest task for Coach Rupert will be replacing Henning and Durbin; Capt. Montgomery is the only experienced distance man returning.

Dozen Baseball Veterans Answer First Practice Call

Coach Frank Moseley has called his baseball lettermen out for the 1941 spring practice session. Men returning from last year's team are Joe Shepherd, Billy Black, Charley Martin, Grover Cardwell, Eddie Fritz, Jim Mathewson, Nolan Navarre, Link Ellington, Ray Graviss, Bill McCubbin, Carl Staker, Allen Rathbun, and Ike Willoughby.

Noah Mullins, Milt Ticco, Bob Herbert, Dick Montgomery, and Phil

Candidates Listed

Candidates for this year's squad are: Althaus and Brewer high hurdles; low hurdles, Althaus, Brewer, Zinn and Lee; sprinters, Hardin and Bernard Johnson; 440-yard Lee, B. Johnson, Davis, Farris, Rice, Powers, Akers, and Parr; shot-put, Spears, Clyde Johnson, and Colvin; discus, Wood, Scott, C. Johnson, Spears and Colvin; javelin, Zoeller and Schlegel; broad-jump, B. Johnson and Hardin; high-jump, Brewer and Parr; pole vaulters, Dunn and Jones. Missouri Teachers is an addition to the Cat harriers six-meet schedule. This school, located at Cape Girardeau, Mo., is reported to have an excellent outfit, having won all their meets last season.

The complete schedule is as follows:

April 12	Hanover	there
April 19	Vanderbilt	there
April 26	Missouri Teach.	here
May 3	Tennessee	here
May 10	Cincinnati	there
May 17	Conference Meet	Birmingham, Ala.

Cutchin, all first-year varsity candidates, also reported.

The baseballers' inaugural game with Illinois college will be played on April 5, the same date as the Blue and White intra-squad football game which concludes spring football practice.

The baseball team will be limited to two days practice on the athletic field since the football squad is using it for their practice sessions. Coach Moseley, moreover, will be busy aiding Ab Kirwan with the gridders.

Despite this handicap of insufficient practice, Moseley predicted a fair season for his team. "We are playing a tough seventeen-game schedule and may not win anymore games than we did last year. But I will say that this will be a stronger team than last year's."

Moseley was enthusiastic about Milt Ticco and Bob Herbert. Both boys have displayed evidences of strong hitting power, he said. Ticco will compete with Cardwell for the first base assignment, while Herbert will be seeking Eddie Fritz's backstopping position.

Dribbles

By HAROLD WINN

The annual game of cop and robber, as interpreted by major-league baseball, was practically ended last week when Joe DiMaggio and Ernie Lombardi signed their contracts. Every year about this time, the ball players holler "holdout," and the club owners holler "holdup."

And speaking of holdouts, Hugh Mulcahy of the Philadelphia Phillies didn't raise any salary squawk when Uncle Sam asked him to report to training camp. He traded his baseball uniform for a khaki suit, his bat for a gun, and his salary for $28 a month—selective service.

Centenary basketball coach Elmer Smith wants to raise the baskets from 10 feet to 12 feet from the floor. It's supposed to put the basket out of the big guy's reach and help the little fellow. Why not lower them to five feet? That ought to make the same difference.

The list of Derby nominees has been published—112 of them. Col. E. R. Bradley, who owned four Derby winners, once said he would give 4 to 1 to anybody who could pick a starter in the Louisville race. Don't be too quick to take those odds either. Out of 1,147 thoroughbreds nominated in the last ten years, only 136 started.

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR RENT: Two nice single rooms for boys. Meals if desired. 609 Maxwellton, Ct.

Dancing classes for young men and women starting now. Both beginners and advanced classes. Conga, Tango, Fox Trot, Waltz, Jitter Bug. Special YWCA rates $1.50 for six lessons. HALL SCHOOL OF DANCING, YWCA bldg. Phone 7674.

LOST: A black Schaeffer fountain pen with initials "L.B.T." on it. If found, please return to Lorraine Towles, Jewell Hall.

LOST: "Psychological Aspects of Business" by E. K. Strong, either in Journalism Dept. or Neville Hall. Call 4346 or see Joe Bonnak.

LOST: A heart bracelet with four hearts. Monday afternoon. Call 7135-X.

LOST: Slide Rule Name "Hy Drawings" on case. Return to Kernel office for reward of one ticket to Engineer's Ball, March 22.

FOR SALE: Good Lexington Leader route. See Route No. 30 at the Leader office between 3:00 and 3:30 p.m.

FOUND: "Working with Psychology" book in Health Bldg., with name "Mary Jean Hendricks." Owner may have same by paying for this ad. Call at Kernel Business Office.

SINGLE: Attractive, and inexpensive rooms with board. Five minutes walk to town and to the University. Room and Board at $4.50 a week, and up. See Jay Wilson or call 4389 for details. Better still, visit the Wayside Inn, 121 Warren Court.

Running Wild

By JOHN CARRICO

Basketball Cleanups

(The following figures, which include the alumni and tournament games, are unofficial—they would be official but we ran out of fingers and toes and had to use peanuts, which are very confloozin'.)

Lee Huber, all-conference guard, and Jim King, all-conference center, tied for first place with 151 points each. Keith Farnsley, another of Rupp's all-conference pupils, was runner-up with 129 tallies. Mel Brewer finished third with 111, a whisker ahead of Marvin Akers, the final member of the all-conference quartet, who accumulated 110.

Milt Ticco took fifth with 102 markers, barely staving off Waller White who collected 101. Seventh place went to Eral Allen with 98 and Carl Staker ended in eighth with 93. Lloyd Ramsey copped ninth with 67 points and Ken England finished tenth with 37. Hoot Combs totaled 35 points.

The Courier-Journal's Jimmy Jones bouquet to Phil Cutchin to quote: "Now that his basketball coaching career is about over Murray Carlisle Cutchin will concentrate his athletic interest mainly in his son, Phil, who is one of Ab Kirwan's most promising halfbacks at the University of Kentucky. Phil is a clever passer and kicker and starred at a Nashville prep school..."

(We started to label this section, "Overheard In the Girls' Dressing-Room". That, however, sounds suspicious, and in order to placate any puritan who might demand an inquiry, we hasten to explain that the following conversation is purely imaginary—so far as we know.)

Scene: the dressing room of the Glamor Cats after a tough basketball game with some rival fennues.

"Girls, did you see that rough forward give me a dirty look? I just know that the referee should have given me a free throw for it. . . . And the way she wore her uniform. . . . My dears, it was absolutely sloppy. . . . Imagine wearing that color of socks with those shoes; And her hair—I've seen better strings wrapped around packages; I think she peroxides it, anyway, etc., etc. . . ."

Although not related to sports, we think this story is funny enough to repeat.

Near Barcelona, Spain, a farmer driving a wagon with a coffin on it picked up another farmer hitch-hiking. It started to rain so the hitchhiker crawled into the coffin and lowered the lid over himself.

Meanwhile the driver picked up two more hitch-hikers who climbed in back alongside the coffin. The farmer in the casket suddenly raised the lid and remarked calmly, "It's stopped raining."

One farmer was killed and the other seriously injured in jumping off the wagon.

Our sincere thanks go to Eugene Mullins for his kind effort in compiling a composite box score of the tournament. We are sorry that space limitations prevented its use.

Breckinridge Wins

Scott D. Breckinridge, law student and former member of UK fencing team, won first place in saber competition in the Amateur Fencers meet in Columbus, O., Saturday.

Breckinridge, acting coach of the University fencing team, also took second place in the foils and epee divisions.

The University student fought against amateur fencers representing the various midwestern states.

Course To Be Given

A special non-credit course in Music Training Leadership is being offered by the Music department for students in the College of Agriculture.

The class will meet on Tuesday of each week from 5 until 6 and will last the rest of the semester. Agriculture students, desiring to take the course, should enroll with Donald Allton of the music department by the end of this week.

Catfish Drop Final Meets; Riddell Elected Captain

Relay Team Sets New Chicago Mark Against DePauw

Although Kentucky's Catfish lost to DePauw 26-49 and Loyola of Chicago 29-37, they gained a captain last weekend when team members elected Gene Riddell their leader before the DePauw meet.

Martin Schwartz, Marvin Padawer, and Frank Eltsorn set a new Chicago record in the 150-yard medley relay. Padawer and Schwartz are members of the freshmen team which is unrecognized by the University athletic department. Schwartz was also high scorer in the Loyola meet with 13 points.

The Loyola meet was the last regular season contest for seniors Lettelle Stephenson, and Riddell. Riddell has completed four seasons with the poolless Catfish.

Eight Straight Wins

Stephenson finished the season with eight straight victories to practically assure him of a trip to the Southeastern Conference meet to represent Kentucky the last of March. Curtis and Riddell probably will round out the Kentucky team. Kentucky's record for the season was three won and six lost. They started off the season by beating Murray handily, but they dropped single bouts to Tennessee and Georgia Tech., with a win over Tusculum sandwiched between. Their next loss was to Michigan State, followed by defeats at DePauw and Loyola.

Crack Pool Record

In the Loyola meet, the score was 30-29 in favor of the Chicagoans with only one more event in the meet to come up. Using intra-scholastic distances instead of intra-collegiate, the Kentuckians forced the Chicago swimmers to crack their own pool record to win from the Catfish by a narrow three inches.

The summary of the Loyola meet: 150-yard medley relay—Kentucky, Eltsorn, Padawer, Schwartz. Time—1:27. (New pool record.) 220-yard free style—O'Connor (L. McKenney (L. Hilenmeyer (Ky. Time—2:19.7. 50-yard free style—Carroll (L. Eltsorn (Ky.) Time—23.5.

Diving—Stephenson (Ky.) Curtis (Ky.) (L. Hilenmeyer (Ky.) Time—35.7. 100-yard breaststroke—Schwartz (Ky.) Mott (L. Riddell (Ky.) Time 1:09.8. 100-yard backstroke—Mullaney (L. Schwartz (Ky.) deRoode (Ky.) Time 1:11.6. 200-yard dash relay—Loyola—Fleming, O'Connor, Morley, Carroll. Time—1:45.3.

1941 Golf Schedule Released By Boles; 7 Matches Slated

The University golfers have begun practice for their 1941 season. Coach S. A. Boles has not outlined a definite practice schedule because of uncertain weather conditions.

Letter men returning are Eral Allen, Lloyd Ramsey, Granville Clark and Meade Farris. All except Allen, who is a member of the football team, are practicing at the Ashland course.

Tentative schedule for the coming season is as follows:

April 10, 11, 12	Southeastern Intercollegiate meet at Athens, Ga.	Here
April 25	Cincinnati	Here
April 26	Missouri St. Teach	Here
May 2	Tennessee	Here
May 9	Cincinnati	There
May 16	Tennessee	There
May 17	Georgia Tech	There

Groups May Claim Picture Layouts At Kyian Office

Fraternities, sororities, and other campus groups that want the pictures used in making up organization pages for the Kentuckian may obtain them from 3 to 5 p.m. today through Friday at the yearbook office, Jim Johnson, business manager, announced yesterday.

Each organization is requested to send only one person to claim the pictures, Johnson explained.

FOR SALE!

2-1929 Model A Fords—In good condition

Bushell's Cities Service Station

Rose and Vine Phone 3181

ROLLARENA
308 W. MAIN ST.
OVER BREWERS' MNT.
SKATING NIGHTLY
EXCEPT ALSO
SUN-THUR AFTERNOON
SPECIAL PARTY
ARRANGEMENTS
POPULAR MUSIC
RESPONSIBLE PRICES
STRICT MANAGEMENT
NO LIQUOR
PERMITTED

Taxicabs! Phone 8200

LEXINGTON YELLOW CAB CO.

Incorporated

Curb Service

SAVE
15%

IN A HURRY?

Drive In And Blow Your Horn

De Boor

LAUNDRY

DRY CLEANING

All America knows... Chesterfield is the Smoker's Cigarette
MILDER, BETTER-TASTING

Those clean white Chesterfield packages have everything a smoker likes and wants. Pull the red tab—take out a Chesterfield... and light it. You'll like the COOL way Chesterfields smoke... you'll like their BETTER TASTE... and you'll find them DEFINITELY Milder—not strong, not flat.

That's why Chesterfield is called the smoker's cigarette—the cigarette that SATISFIES.

Do you smoke the cigarette that Satisfies....it's the smoker's cigarette

FRANCES BURKE
Miss America 1940-41

Copyright 1941, LIGGETT & MASON TOBACCO CO.